9. PROCEDURE FOR FILING COMPLAINT

- (1) Any person who has grievance against a bank on any one or more of the grounds mentioned in Clause 8 of the Scheme may, himself or through his authorized representative (other than an advocate), make a complaint to the Banking Ombudsman within whose jurisdiction the branch or office of the bank complained against is located.

Provided that a complaint arising out of the operations of credit cards, shall be filed before the Banking Ombudsman within whose territorial jurisdiction the billing address of the card holder is located and not the place where the bank concerned or the credit card processing unit is located.

- (2) (a) The complaint in writing shall be duly signed by the complainant or his authorized representative and shall be, as far as possible, in the form specified in Annexure 'A' or as near as thereto as circumstances admit, stating clearly:
- (i) the name and the address of the complainant;
 - (ii) the name and address of the branch or office of the bank against which the complaint is made,
 - (iii) the facts giving rise to the complaint,
 - (iv) the nature and extent of the loss caused to the complainant, and
 - (v) the relief sought for.
- (b) The complainant shall file along with the complaint, copies of the documents, if any, which he proposes to rely upon and a declaration that the complaint is maintainable under sub-clause (3) of this clause.
- (c) A complaint made through electronic means shall also be accepted by the Banking Ombudsman and a print out of such complaint shall be taken on the record of the Banking Ombudsman.
- (d) The Banking Ombudsman shall also entertain complaint covered by this Scheme received by Central Government or Reserve Bank and forwarded to him for disposal.
- (3) No complaint to the Banking Ombudsman shall lie unless:-
- (a) the complainant had, before making a complaint to the Banking Ombudsman, made a written representation to the bank and the bank had rejected the complaint or the complainant had not received any reply within a period of one month after the bank received his representation or the complainant is not satisfied with the reply given to him by the bank;
 - (b) the complaint is made not later than one year after the complainant has received the reply of the bank to his representation or, where no reply is received, not later than one year and one month after the date of the representation to the bank;
 - (c) the complaint is not in respect of the same subject matter which was settled or dealt with on merits by the Banking Ombudsman in any previous proceedings whether or not received from the same complainant or along with one or more complainants or one or more of the parties concerned with the subject matter;
 - (d) the complaint does not pertain to the same subject matter, for which any proceeding before any court, tribunal or arbitrator or any other forum is pending or a decree or Award or order has been passed by any such court, tribunal, arbitrator or forum;
 - (e) the complaint is not frivolous or vexatious in nature; and
 - (f) the complaint is made before the expiry of the period of limitation prescribed under the Indian Limitation Act, 1963 for such claims.

10. POWER TO CALL FOR INFORMATION

- (1) For the purpose of carrying out his duties under this Scheme, a Banking Ombudsman may require the bank against whom the complaint is made or any other bank concerned with the complaint to provide any information or furnish certified copies of any document relating to the complaint which is or is alleged to be in its possession.

Provided that in the event of the failure of a bank to comply with the requisition without sufficient cause, the Banking Ombudsman may, if he deems fit, draw the inference that the information if provided or copies if furnished would be unfavourable to the bank.

- (2) The Banking Ombudsman shall take into account the evidence placed before him by the parties, the principles of banking law and practice, directions, instructions and guidelines issued by the Reserve Bank from time to time and such other factors which in his opinion are relevant to the complaint.
- (3) The award shall state briefly the reasons for passing the award.
- (4) The award passed under sub-clause (1) shall specify the amount, if any, to be paid by the bank to the complainant by way of compensation for the loss suffered by him and may contain any direction to the bank.
- (5) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-clause (4), the Banking Ombudsman shall not have the power to pass an award directing payment of an amount which is more than the actual loss suffered by the complainant as a direct consequence of the act of omission or commission of the bank, or twenty lakh rupees whichever is lower.
- (6) In the case of complaints arising out of credit card operations, the Banking Ombudsman shall, while determining the amount of compensation payable, take into account the loss of the complainant's time, expenses incurred by the complainant, financial loss, harassment and mental anguish suffered by the complainant.
- (7) A copy of the Award shall be sent to the complainant and the bank.
- (8) An Award shall not be binding on a bank against which it is passed unless the complainant furnishes to it, within a period of 15 days from the date of receipt of copy of the Award, a letter of acceptance of the Award in full and final settlement of his claim in the matter. If the complainant does not accept the Award passed by the Banking Ombudsman or fails to furnish his letter of acceptance within the said period of 15 days or within such further time not exceeding a period of fifteen days that may be granted by the Banking Ombudsman, the Award shall lapse and not be of on effect.
- (9) The bank shall within one month from the date of receipt by it of the acceptance in writing of the complainant under sub-clause (8), or within such time not exceeding a period of fifteen days that may be granted by the Banking Ombudsman, comply with the Award and intimate compliance to the Banking Ombudsman.

13. REJECTION OF THE COMPLAINT

- (1) The Banking Ombudsman may reject a complaint at any stage if it appears to him that the complaint made is:
 - (a) frivolous, vexatious, malafide; or
 - (b) without any sufficient cause; or
 - (c) that it is not pursued by the complainant with reasonable diligence; or

- (d) in the opinion of the Banking Ombudsman there is no loss or damage or inconvenience caused of the complainant; or
- (e) beyond the pecuniary jurisdiction of Banking Ombudsman prescribed under clause 12(5).

(2) The Banking Ombudsman may reject a complaint at any stage if after consideration of the complaint and evidence produced before him the Banking Ombudsman is of the opinion that the nature of the complaint requires consideration of elaborate documentary and oral evidence and the proceedings before the Banking Ombudsman are not appropriate for adjudication of such complaint. The decision of the Banking Ombudsman in this regard shall be final and binding on the complainant and the bank.

14. APPEAL BEFORE THE APPELLATE AUTHORITY:

- (1) Any person aggrieved by the Award may, within 45 days of the date of receipt of the Award, prefer an appeal against the Award before the Appellate Authority;

Provided that the Appellate may, if he is satisfied that the applicant had sufficient cause for not making the appeal within time, allow a further period not exceeding 30 days;

Provided further that the appeal may be filed by the bank only with the previous sanction of the Chairman or, in his absence, the Managing Director or the Executive Director or the Chief Executive Officer or any other officer of equal rank.

- (2) The Appellate Authority shall, after giving the parties a reasonable opportunity of being heard
 - (a) dismiss the appeal; or
 - (b) allow the appeal and set aside the Award; or
 - (c) remand the matter to the Banking Ombudsman for fresh disposal in accordance with such directions as the Appellate Authority may consider necessary or proper; or
 - (d) modify the Award and pass such directions as may be necessary to give effect to the Award so modified; or
 - (e) pass any other order as it may deem fit.

- (3) The order of the Appellate Authority shall have the same effect as the Award passed by Banking Ombudsman under clause 12 or the order rejecting the complaint under clause 13, as the case may be.

15. BANKS TO DISPLAY SALIENT FEATURES OF THE SCHEME FOR COMMON KNOWLEDGE OF PUBLIC.

- (1) The banks covered by the Scheme shall ensure that the purpose of the Scheme and the name and address of the Banking Ombudsman to whom the complaints are to be made by the aggrieved party are displayed prominently in all the offices and branches of the bank in such manner that a person visiting the office or branch has adequate information of the Scheme.
- (2) The bank covered by the Scheme shall ensure that a copy of the Scheme is available with the designated officer of the bank for perusal in the office premises of the bank

if anyone desires to do so and notice about the availability of the Scheme with such designated officer shall be displayed along with the notice under sub-clause (1) of this clause.
